Galveston, Texas.

My Dear Mr. Cohen:

"This is to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of February ninth, in which you suggest amending the resolution adopted by the Text Book Commission on January 19, 1920.

"I hardly think it necessary for you to come to Austin. The governor is out of town and if he returns we will probably have a meeting on Saturday. When I get an opportunity, I will talk to the governor relative to amending the resolution, and, if he thinks it best for you to make a personal appearance, I will let you know by letter or telegraph.

"Yours very truly,

"I have read with much interest your letter of February 6th with regard to resolution of the Text Book Commission language therein contained, pertaining to religion. I feel that the position you have taken with regard to this matter is correct, and I also feel sure that the Commission will be glad to maintain this resolution without your going to the expense and trouble of appearing before it.

"The matter will be taken up at a meeting of the Commission Monday, and of course you may use your own pleasure concerning whether or not you will appear before it.

"Yours sincerely,
